To whom it may concern:

It is my pleasure to offer this recommendation in support of Fernando Cintra's freelance employment. He worked with us at komoot as a freelance route editor July 2023 until March 2024.

With over 35 million users Komoot is well on its way to becoming the most popular cycling and hiking app for people who love adventures worldwide.

Some of Fernando Cintra's key responsibilities and tasks included:

- Independently conducted research on best known and most relevant hiking, cycling, and mountain biking trails spanning Italy, Switzerland and Portugal.
- Identified and curated relevant points of interest associated with outdoor sports
- Sourced royalty-free imagery suitable for route recommendations and points of interest.
- Created hiking and cycling route recommendations for komoot platform users, incorporating written descriptions and appropriate imagery.
- Proofread the contributions of fellow freelance team members to maintain high quality standards for all platform route recommendations.

During his tenure in Komoot's freelance editorial team, he skillfully adapted to evolving work processes and consistently strove to produce optimal route recommendations for our users. His meticulous attention to detail also contributed significantly to enhancing the quality of work among his fellow freelance editors.

Fernando Cintra brought versatile skills, dedication, and a positive attitude to the route research project. He was self-dependent, structured, and goal-oriented in his personal way of work.

Should you have any questions concerning this recommendation, do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Sebastian Kowalke
Senior Managing Editor
